БЮЛЕТИН

Стартът е даден!

Суетенето от посрещането и настаняването на участниците и гостите в Европейското отборно първенство по шахмат за мъже и жени бързо премина.

Във фойетата на “Новотел Пловдив” и хотелите “Тримонциум” и “Марица” се срещнаха стари приятели. Ръкостискания, прегръдки, оживени разговори. Девизът на ФИДЕ “GENS UNA SUMUS” оживя.

Древният амфитеатър в Стария град се оказа тесен да побере всички участници и многобройните любители на шахмата – дошли на тържественото му откриване.

С приветствени думи към тях се обърнаха кметът на град Пловдив д-р Иван Чомаков и президентът на Европейския шахматен съюз Борис Кутин. Прочетено беше и приветствие от името на Васил Иванов – Министър на младежта и спорта на Република България. Под аплодисментите на присъстващите, директорът на Европейското отборно първенство Камен Тошков – Заместник Председател на Българската Федерация по шахмат обяви десетдневната надпревара за открита.

В небето над Пловдив полетяха разноцветни фойерверки. На сцената на Амфитеатъра се извиха кръшни хора и народни изпълнения – най-хубавото от фолклора на Тракия – поздрав към представителите на четирдесете Европейски страни дошли в града под тепетата за участие в 14-то първенство за мъже и 5-то за жени.

Два часа по-късно в зала ”Париж” на “Новотел Пловдив” се проведе техническата конференция.

Всички въпросителни относно съставите на отборите отпаднаха. Изясниха се стартовите номера и първите противници.

It Starts!

The whirlpool of arrivals is over. Old friends met in the lobbies of “Novotel Plovdiv”, “Trimontium” and “Maritsa”. Gens una sumus” came to life.

Boris Kutin, President of the European Chess Union (ECU), delivers his speech at the Grand Opening

Борис Кутин, Президент на Европейския шахматен съюз (ECU), открива първенството

The ancient amphitheater in the Old City could not accommodate the participants and myriads of chess lovers, who gathered for the official opening of The Event.

The first one to address the multitude was Dr. Ivan Chomakov, the Mayor of Plovdiv, followed by Boris Kutin, ECU President. Warmly applauded by the audience, Mr. Kamen Toshkov, Director of the European Team Championship and Vice-President of the Bulgarian Chess Federation, declared the competition open.

Fireworksrocketed into the night sky of the city. The amphitheatre became a scene of spectacular Bulgarian folk dances (called “khora” in Bulgarian) from the Thrace region and music shows as a greeting to the representatives of nearly 40 countries, who had come to Plovdiv for the Championship.

The Technical Meeting of the team captains and the arbiters was held two hours later in “Novotel Plovdiv”, “Paris” hall.

The lineups of the teams became known, as well as the start-up team ranking and the pairing list for the first round.

The First Round at a Glance

The central encounter of the men's competition in this round was the match Russia – Bulgaria. A curious coincidence is that twenty years ago the match USSR – Bulgaria was played also in the first round.

Today's match was very interesting. The favourites in the Championships managed to win $2\frac{1}{2} : 1\frac{1}{2}$, but this result was achieved with great difficulty. Peter Svidler on first board (playing White) defeated Alexander Delchev. Delchev had no difficulties in the opening – a traditional Ruy Lopez. In the middlegame Svidler produced a powerful passed pawn in the center and in the approaching time trouble Black was faced with practical difficulties.

Vassil Spassov (White) on second board against Grishchuk was the more active party throughout the game. In Sicilian the Bulgarian grandmaster sacrificed a pawn in the middlegame and the game became very complicated. In this situation Black's time troubles and Spassov's bishop pair proved decisive.

Alexander Morozevich scored against Boris Chatalbashev on board three. The final score emerged after a draw between Ivan Cheparinov and Alexander Khalifman. Cheparinov (White) achieved a slight advantage in in Ruy Lopez and rejected a draw proposal, but later it turned out that this is the logical result. Good for the 17-year old Bulgarian chessplayer.

The second team of the host-country also registered a loss at the start: $1\frac{1}{2} : 2\frac{1}{2}$ against Poland. Peter Genov (Black) on board 1 defeated Markovski. One of the surprises of this round. Markovski achieved a promising position in the opening, but underestimated an Exchange sacrifice and the ensuing strong black counterplay.

One of the first finished games was the win of Alexey Shirov (ESP) over S. Atalik (BIH). A convincing game of the Spanish grandmaster in French Defence and a short one both by time and by number of moves.

A very unpleasant incident occurred in the first round. Two hours after the beginning of the round, the mobile phone of the World Champion Ruslan Ponomarev (UKR) rang and the match arbiter Toncho Demirev (BUL) assigned him a loss by arbiter decision. An extremely unpleasant incident, but ... the Regulations must be respected! And they say ex-

PLICITLY that “no mobile phones are allowed in the playing area.”

As to the women, Georgia had the most convincing start defeating the Czech Republic by 2:0. Russia beat Moldova $1\frac{1}{2} : \frac{1}{2}$. The same result achieved Bulgaria-1 against Slovenia, following a win of Emilia Jingarova (White) on board 2 over D. Kaps. The second Bulgarian team scored 1:1 with the favorites of Poland following two draws.

Обзор на първия КРЪГ

Централна среща в първия кръг при мъжете бе двубоят между отборите на Русия и България. По любопитно съвпадение двата отбора откриха Европейското първенство в Пловдив и преди 20 години.

Днешният двубой премина много интересно. Победата постигнаха фаворитите в първенството с $2\frac{1}{2} : 1\frac{1}{2}$, но до този резултат те достигнаха много трудно. На първа дъска П. Свидлер (с белите фигури) надделя над Ал. Делчев. По дебют Делчев нямаше особени проблеми, разигравайки по традиционен начин Испанска партия. В мителшпила Свидлер успя да получи силна проходна пешка в центъра и в настъпващия цайтнот създаде практически трудности пред черните.

На втора дъска В. Спасов водеше през цялото време играта срещу А. Гришчук. В Сицилианска защита българският пожертва пешка в мителшпила и успя да предизвика големи усложнения. В сложен мителшпил и недостиг на време у черните двойката офицери на Спасов се оказаха решаващи.

На трета дъска Ал.Морозевич победи Б.Чаталбашев.Крайният резултат в срещата бе фиксиран след реми на четвърта дъска между Иван Чепаринов (с белите) и Ал.Халифман.В Испанска партия след като получи минимално преимущество белите отказаха реми, но в последствие се оказа, че това е закономерният резултат. Безспорен успех на 17-годишният български шахматист.

И вторият отбор на домакините стартира със загуба - 1½: 2½ срещу Полша. На първа дъска Петър Генов (с черните) победи Марковски. Една от сензациите на първия кръг.След като получи обещаваща позиция в дебюта, Марковски недооцени жертва на качество и последвалата силна контраигра на черните.

Една от първите резултатни партии в първенството бе победата на А.Широв (Исп) над С.Аталик (Б и Х). Убедителна победа на испанския шахматист във Френска защита. Пар-тията приключи бързо, както по играните ходове, така и по време.

Първенството започна с един много неприятен инцидент. Два часа след началото на кръга мобилният телефон на световния шампион Руслан Пономарьов (Укр) иззвъня и съдията на срещата Швеция – Украйна, Т.Демирев (Бълг) му фиксира служебна загуба..Много неприятен случай., но.... регламентът трябва да се спазва! А в него ясно е записано, че “ с мобифони не се влиза в залата”.

При жените най-убедително от фаворитките стартираха представителките на Грузия, които спечелиха чиста победа с 2 : 0 срещу Чехия. Русия победи Молдова с 1½ : ½ . Със същия резултат първият отбор на България се наложи над Словения, след победа на втора дъска на Ем.Джингарова (с белите) над Д.Капс. Вторият български отбор завърши наравно 1:1 с един от фаворитите за медали Полша мм Юлиян Радулски.
